
IMMEDIATE OPENING • ELECTRICAL ENGINEER • FULL TIME POSITION
3 + YEARS EXPERIENCE

DTI is seeking a mid-level Electrical Engineer. The work involves design, construction, and testing of specialized equipment for industrial and government applications.

General Company Information:

Diversified Technologies, Inc. is the developer and marketer of the PowerMod™ line of high power modulators, DC power supplies and control systems. Selected twice by R&D Magazine as one of the 100 most significant products of the year, PowerMod™ systems are available in a wide range of voltage, current, and performance configurations. DTI also applies its broad base in engineering and physics to consulting on specific engineering and development requirements.

Please take a few moments to browse our site and learn about our unique technology, and how our products are being used in high power applications world wide: www.divtecs.com

Responsibilities:

- Develop electrical schematics and interconnect drawings
- Work with Senior Engineers and Scientists on new designs
- Work in a team with other engineers and technicians to fabricate and wire systems
- Subsystem testing and documentation
- Site test support

Requirements:

- Very good AutoCAD skills, PCB skills a plus
- Analytical and hands-on skills required
- Self-guided and active team player with a willingness to learn
- Good written and oral communication skills
- US Citizen or permanent resident

Education: EE degree. (MS preferred)

Experience: 3+ years related work experience.

Travel: Occasional travel to customer sites required (domestic and foreign)

Excellent benefit program:

Insurance: Health, dental, life, disability, 401K. Leave & Holidays: paid holidays, sick and 15 days of vacation beginning the first year. EOE.

Contact Information:

Send resumes to jobs@divtecs.com or fax resumes to 781.275.6081
Diversified Technologies, Inc., 35 Wiggins Avenue, Bedford, MA 01730